CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

The Civil Service Commissioners have been requested to inform Candidates for the Indian Civil Service that, "in the event of their being appointed to the Service, a clause will be introduced into their Covenants, by which they will bind themselves to agree to such Regulations for the provision of pensions for their families as may be approved by the Secretary of State for India in Council."

REGULATIONS FOR THE OPEN COMPETITION OF JUNE 1881.

N. B.—The Regulations are liable to be altered in future years.

1. On the 2nd June 1881 and following days, an Examination, open to all qualified persons, will be held in London. (a) Not fewer than Candidates will be selected, if so many shall be found duly qualified; viz. for the Presidency of Bengal, [for the Upper, and for the Lower Provinces,] for that of Madras, and for that of Bombay.(b)

2. No person will be deemed qualified who shall not satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

(i.) That he is a natural-born subject of Her Majesty.

(ii.) That his age will be above seventeen years and under nineteen years on the 1st June, 1881. [N. B.—In the case of Natives of India this must be certified by the Government of India, or of the Presidency or Province in which the Candidate may have resided.]

(iii.) That he has no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for the Civil Service of India.

(iv.) That he is of good moral character.

(v.) That he has paid such fee as may be prescribed under the provisions of the Order in Council of the 22nd March 1879.(c)

3. Should the evidence upon the above points be primâ facie satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners, the Candidate will be admitted to the Examination. The Commissioners may however, in their discretion, at any time prior to the grant of the Certificate of Qualification hereinafter referred to, institute such further inquiries as they may deem necessary; and if the result of such inquiries, in the case of any Candidate, should be unsatisfactory to them in any of the above respects, he will be ineligible for admission to the Civil Service of India; and if already selected will be removed from the position of a Probationer.

(a) Notice of the days and place of Examination will be sent to each Candidate about the end of May.

6. The marks assigned to Candidates in each branch will be subject to such deduction as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary, in order to secure that "a Candidate be allowed no credit at all for taking up a subject in which he is a mere smatterer." (g)

7. The Examination will be conducted on paper and vivâ voce, as may be deemed necessary.

8. The marks obtained by each Candidate, in respect of each of the subjects in which he shall have been examined, will be added up, and the names of the several Candidates who shall have obtained after the deduction above mentioned, a greater aggregate number of marks than any of the remaining Candidates, will be set forth in order of merit, and such Candidates shall be deemed to be Selected Candidates for the Civil Service of India, provided they appear to be in other respects duly qualified. Should any of the Selected Candidates become disqualified, the Secretary of State for India will determine whether the vacancy thus created shall be filled up or not. In the former case, the Candidate next in order of merit, and in other respects duly qualified, shall be deemed to be a Selected Candidate. A Selected Candidate declining to accept the appointment which may be offered to him will be disqualified for any subsequent competition.

(d) A considerable portion of the marks for English History and Literature will be allotted to the work selected by the Candidate. In awarding marks for this, regard will be had partly to the extent and importance of the periods or books selected, but chiefly to the thoroughness with which they have been studied.

(e) The examination will range from Arithmetic, Algebra, and Elementary Geometry, up to the elements of the differential and integral calculus, including the lower portions of applied Mathematics.

(f) The standard of marking in Sanskrit and Arabic will be determined with reference to a high degree of proficiency, such as may be expected to be reached by a Native of good education.

(g) Marks assigned in English Composition and Mathematics will be subject to no deduction.

(h) Full instructions as to the course of study to be pursued will be issued to the successful Candidates as soon as possible after the result of the Open Competition is declared.

In these Examinations as in the open competition, the merit of the Candidates examined will be estimated by marks, and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it at any one Examination. The Examinations will be conducted on paper and viva voce, as may be deemed necessary. The last of these Examinations will be held at the close of the second year of probation, and will be called the "Final Examination," at which it will be decided whether a Selected Candidate is qualified for the Civil Service of India. 11. The Selected Candidates who, at the Final Examination, shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9, and who shall have satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, and character, shall be certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India, provided they shall comply with the regulations in force, at the time, for that Service.

12. Persons desirous to be admitted as Candidates must apply on Forms, which may be obtained from "The Secretary, Civil Service Commission, London, S. W." at any time after the 1st December 1880. The forms must be returned so as to be received at the Office of the Civil Service Commissioners on or before 1st April 1881. They should be accompanied by evidence on the first four of the points mentioned in Regulation 2, and by a list of the subjects in which the Candidate desires to be examined. (i)

The Civil Service Commissioners are authorized by the Secretary of State for India in Council to make the following announcements :—

(1.) Selected Candidates will be permitted to choose, according to the order in which they stand in the list resulting from the open competition, as long as a choice remains, the Presidency (and in Bengal the Division of the Presidency) to which they shall be appointed ; but this choice will be subject to a different arrangement, should the Secretary of State, or the Government of India, deem it necessary.(k)

(5.) All Selected Candidates will be required after having passed the first periodical Examination, and before receiving the first instalment of their allowance, to attend at the India Office for the purpose of entering into an agreement binding themselves, amongst other things, to refund in certain cases the amount of their allowance in the event of their failing to proceed to India. A surety will be required.

(6) After passing the Final Examination each Candidate will be required to attend again at the India Office, with the view of entering into covenants. The stamps payable on these documents amount to £1.

(7.) Candidates rejected at the Final Examination of 1883 will in no case be allowed to present themselves for re-examination.

(i) Evidence of health and character must bear date not earlier than 1st March 1881. Applications for leave to alter or add to the list of subjects named will not be entertained unless received on or before the 5th of May.

(k) This choice must be exercised immediately after the result of the Open Competition is announced, on such day as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners.

To the Director of Examinations,
Civil Service Commission.

The 4th February 1881

No. 25.—With reference to letter No. 21-751, dated 18th April 1879, from the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, to the Chief Commissioner of Mysore and Coorg, published at page 176 of the Mysore Gazette of the 17th May 1879, Part I the Chief Commissioner orders the publication of the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home, Revenue and Agricultural Department.

By Order,

W. J. CUNINGHAM,
Secretary.

From the Offg. Secretary to the Government of India, To the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, Home, Revenue and Agricultural Department, Judl. No. 3—151, dated Fort William, the 24th January 1881.

In Home Department circular Nos. 21—746 to 753, dated 18th April 1879, instructions were issued with the object of securing the appointment of Natives of India to an increasing majority of higher offices in the Uncovenanted Service. Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India has recently decided that those instructions should not be held to apply to appointments under the Letters Patent of a local High Court, e. g., to a Deputy Registrarship of a High Court, and further that, where the law directs that the incumbent of an office shall be a Barrister, it does not intend to impose any restriction as to the race or domicile of the person appointed, but simply to prescribe a condition.

2. As these rulings are of general application, I am to request that they may be observed in connection with the instructions contained in the circular cited above of 18th April 1879.
